Firefighters Will Convene At Lake During Next Week

Approximately 100 men from federal, state, and local agencies in central California and western Nevada who protect forest and wildland resources of the two states from forest fires, will attend the conference to be held at Tahoe City on April 25, 26 and 27.

These annual meetings, held prior to the fire season, have as their goal the promotion of better cooperation and understanding among the many agencies involved in the prevention and control of forest and watershed fires.

W. H. Brownlee, associate state forest ranger, Nevada-Yuba ranger unit, California division of forestry and general chairman of this year's conference, stated that the program will be devoted primarily to mutual problems encountered by the various agencies.

A presentation will be made by representatives of local and state law enforcement agencies on cooperation in evacuation, road blockades, and oral closures. Other topics on the agenda will include a panel discussion on the California conservation camp program; research findings on fire prevention and the crisis fire period; and a showing of a film of the disastrous "Bel Aire" fire which occurred in 1961 in the Los Angeles area.

Equipment chairman Peter "Pete" Wyckoff, district ranger, Big Bend Ranger District, Tahoe National Forest, has arranged for demonstrations of new and improved fire equipment as developed by fire control agencies and private manufacturers. Included in the show will be a demonstration of a closed circuit television fire detection system presented by the Motorola Radio Company; further developments in the use of the fire retardant "Algin"; and the use of Polaroid cameras to aid in communication between aircraft and ground fire fighting forces.

EASTER'S LATENESS CAUSED BY MOON

Easter's late arrival, April 22, is based on the fact that the Parschal full moon did not arrive until today.

Easter, the annual festival day, commemorating the resurrection of Christ, has been celebrated since the second century in all Christian communities. It occurs on the first Sunday after the Paschal full moon following the vernal equinox and may fall on any Sunday between March 22 and April 25.

An astronomical full moon arrived this year on March 21, but this was not the Paschal full moon.

School Bond Issue Vote Falls Short Of Required Total

Although a majority of voters in the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District favored a $2 million bond issue at Tuesday's special election, the required two-thirds for passage fell 115 votes short and the issue failed to carry.

There were 805 votes cast, with 473 voting yes and 332 no. Even though the 74 absentee ballots are all in favor, the total still would not reach the 588 necessary to put the issue over.

Actually Floriston was the only one of the five precincts giving the required two-thirds. There the count was 30 to 17 in favor of the bonds.

Donner Trail voters cast a total of 47 ballots, with 30 favoring and 17 opposing with two absentee ballots to be counted.

At Kings Beach the count was 109 for and 112 against for a total of 221, with 21 absentee votes still to be counted.

Tahoe City favored the issue 156 to 96 for a total of 252 votes and with 35 absentee ballots out.

School officials were not immediately available to advise what steps now will be taken to eliminate crowded condtions in some of the schools and provide for continued increase in registration.

The Del Oro game was a nip and tuck affair through out. It was finally decided by a triple and a single in the bottom of the eighth inning. Heavy hitters for the Wolverines were Dennis Whiteneck with a triple and Doug Doolittle and Skip Wilson with doubles.

The JV's also lost twice, 9-0 to South Tahoe and 3-2 to Del Oro. Kary Kielhofer pitched very good ball against Del Oro, striking out 14 before tiring in the seventh and allowing two runs on three hits.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

It is quite obvious that at least two organizations in the western end of Nevada County are attempting to block the building of a court house annex and the proposed new county building for this end of the county. They are now putting pressure on the board of supervisors to abandon a sensible plan of lease-purchase and call a bond election. It has been proven that the lease-purchase idea is far more adequate for the purpose than a doubtful bond election. Certainly it would be more speedy, more flexible and less restrictive, and right now the need for action is paramount. The court house is overcrowded and Truckee has long awaited its new building. We sincerely hope that the supervisors will stand by their first resolve and proceed without hesitation, disregarding the loud opposition from the few who would have the county's progress stopped. We are assured by our supervisor that he will continue to support the lease-purchase plan and work toward providing the much needed facilities as soon as possible. Land has been purchased here for the new building, engineers have been engaged to work out details of construction for both the annex and the Truckee structure and it seems ridiculous that a few malcontents can step in at the last minute and cause dissension and even threaten the entire project.

RAINBOW GIRLS TO SERVE BREAKFAST ON EASTER MORNING

Fishing Reported Good In Donner; Local Man Lands Biggest Trout

Frank Giovannoni, Jr., is one of the lucky fishermen in the lake this week. He landed an 11¼ pound German brown—believed to be the largest of this species ever taken in Donner. He used salmon eggs for bait and caught the fish near the east end while fishing from shore.

Commutation Of Death Sentence Sought For Slayer

Governor Edmund G. Brown last week referred the case of convicted murderer, Stanley William Fitzgerald, 42, to the state supreme court with a request that a favorable recommendation be given for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment.

Fitzgerald was convicted of murdering George Bonn of San Francisco on August 3, 1960 at Woodchopper Springs near Truckee. He was also accused of seriously wounding Milton J. Young, 41, of Lewiston, California, during an attempted robbery of the pair.

Fitzgerald fled the scene of the crime and was later captured in Portland, Oregon. He was accused of leaving Young critically wounded. The latter started a fire to attract forest service officers to the scene and was thus saved from probable death.

According to witnesses, Fitzgerald of Oakland, Bonn and Young met at a San Francisco bar the day before the shooting. They decided on a trip to Reno and both Bonn and Young had a considerable sum of money.

They stopped in Truckee, had a few drinks and Fitzgerald, according to the story told local officers, said he had to see a man about a tractor near here. He drove to Woodchopper Springs, forced his companions to disrobe at the point of a gun. When Bonn attempted to unarm Fitzgerald, the officers were advised, he was fatally shot and the gun was turned on Young.

The governor said his investigation of the trial records showed the conduct of Fitzgerald was not deliberate or premeditated.

"This homicide," said Brown, "occurred after he (Fitzgerald) had become intoxicated and while the victim sought to disarm Fitzgerald by attempting to render him unconscious . . . Judge Vernon Stoll who presided at this trial has written me advising he favors a commutation in this case."

PLANT THREATENED BY FREAKISH BLAZE

Starting from a freakish cause, an incipient fire back of the Sierra Sun newspaper plant Saturday shortly after noon, was quickly extinguished by the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department.

A steel escape ladder, knocked from the building by ice leaned against live electric wires leading into the building with the bottom sitting on a gas line. The top of the ladder shorted out the wires and the current went down the ladder, burning a hole through the gas pipe setting the gas afire.

Fortunately the fire was discovered early and no damage resulted although it was necessary to shut off the main line valve while repairs were being made, many businesses along the main street being out of gas for a time.

Tahoe Firemen To Sponsor Egg Hunt Easter Afternoon

Children from two to eight years of age who live in the Tahoe City school district are eligible to participate in the Easter egg hunt, according to Chairman Don Lambert.

This is always a well-planned and festive affair and, according to one fire department spokesman, "this is one of several ways in which the Tahoe City Volunteer Fire Department can express to the community the department's gratitude for the support extended to us by the entire community."

Chairman Lambert is being assisted by members of the entire fire department, including Pete Vanni, Walt Finke, Dick Lambert, George Kunges and Chief Al Henry. Wives of all the firemen are assisting with the coloring of more than 900 eggs and Easter decorations.

The Easter egg hunt will be divided into two divisions, according to age of participant, and there will be two prizes of merchandise in each division.

Directors Plan To Open Local Port

Directors of the Truckee Tahoe Airport District are hopeful that the field two miles south of Truckee on the Brockway cutoff can be in limited operation sometime in mid-July.

At a special meeting of the directors last week it was decided to meet with representatives of Leigh Fisher Associates of San Francisco to work out an air trade study to obtain criteria for an operational program for the local port.

Jack Houlgate, president of the board, said May 1 has tentatively been set for meeting with the engineers to draft terms of leases and contracts best suited to the local facility.

The study will involve such matters as facilities for servicing aircraft, charter services, training program, accommodations and other similar necessities for the best operation of the field. The board hopes to have these details worked out by May 15, Houlgate declared.

Work will resume on the field just as soon as possible and while some delay has been encountered in the second phase of the project, the board believes that this will not materially affect the progress in construction.

Annual Cleanup Slated For May 12

The annual spring cleanup for the Truckee Donner area has been set for Saturday, May 12.

The program, sponsored each year by the chamber of commerce and the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department, will be along the same lines as in the past, Chamber Manager N. F. Dolley explained.

Trucks and crews will gather up and haul away debris which has been collected by the home owner and placed in convenient piles easily accessible. The volunteer workers will not clean up lots or yards but will only do the hauling.

As usual, the day will start off with a breakfast at Smart's and everyone willing to assist in the day's activities is invited, the chamber of commerce picking up the check. At noon, the Fire-ettes will host a luncheon at the fire station, which the chamber will also finance. All the work will be completed in one day.

Dolley said he would contact truck owners who might loan their equipment of the day and that the project may be extended to Donner Lake if the residents there desire.

Each year dozens of loads of accumulated trash both from yards, basements and attics, all potential fire hazards, are hauled away and it is hoped by the committee that this project will be bigger than in the past.

SUMMIT SCENE

By FRAN COUILLARD

To carry on with Elisha's Elegy. And further to pin point my point. I have been looking over this section's maps and stuff. And why didn't I note before that the Yuba River has a North and South Fork—and that the American River has a South and North Fork—and to complete some of these forks—there is a tine in the center known as the Middle Fork. Now these little tributes that branch off the main stem have carried their cognomens for quite a spell. And when a squirt of water shot off someplace else and made a new run for itself the powers that guide the waters to the seas looked at the thing geographically (and sensibly) and named them geographically (and sensibly). So again—why not a North and a South Donner Summit? Huh? It certainly will not tend to confuse the traveler, because they will all be going the same place anyway—and there isn't a chance they will get lost. (Incidentally—should I give in on this "thing" that I have—may I cut the ribbon that will bring the shade of Elisha Steven's back to his perilous episode in the Donner Summit portion of the Sierra?)

And then Jim Sherritt came along (after spending the heavy winter months at his ranch) and said "I kind of go along with you on this deal. And while I cannot see two Donner Summits—why not "Donner Freeway." So there's another one.

Well, I'll sharpen my scissors anyway—just in case I don't win my plea.

And while I let Stevens rest for awhile—let me tell you about my mother's 80th birthday party. I am the eldest of eight children—we are all married (making 16) and Grandmother Hack has 23 grandchrildren and six great grandchildren. And so we came from East, West, North and South, by train, rail and air — and by golly we all made it—to find out that this grand matriarch still holds full sway. And know what she requested for her birthday? A cameras she is going to take up the hobby of photography. Needless to say she got it. And we are most anxiously awaiting the photographers proofs of Mrs. Lois Hack with her seven daughters and one son; and her seven son-in-laws with one daughteri-n-law. She was soundly and roundly toasted with champagne.

As my poor presence was needed on the job (for this party was on Saturday night) I found myself coming back up the hill with the skiers Sunday morning. As I lined up our car in the highway traffic and followed the bumper of the car ahead of me I purposely did a "no passing" job to observe the number of for the day skiers that were coming up the mountain to Soda Springs, to the Sugar Bowl,, to Donner Ski Ranch, Alpine Meadows — Squaw. And I mentally counted the picnic lunches in said cars and thought to myself "if this area doesn't get together—and start advertising out of the circle—such as the valley, East Bay, San Francisco and Peninsula, resorts, lodges and hotels—will be intentionally and carelessly committing suicide."

The ski hill operators take the position that they no longer need the lodge guest business except during mid week, and I can't say that I blame them. Families that heretofore could not afford to bring the whole family skiing and spend a night or two at a lodge—now may bring the whole family up for a day of skiing. Our new "unrolling" carpets have made this possible. And with each newly opened link of the new Sierra Chain Freeway—the situation becomes more perilous, but merely for the lodge, inn, hotel and resort.

How to remedy the situation? Plain as the nose on your face. A concentrated "system of advertising" outside of the present circle. We must reach those who must plan overnight stays in order to get in their skiing. Down around San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Santa Maria — where the state is kind of wide for potential skiers to shoot broadside to Highway 395—that seems to be our most logical point of attack. In going through telephone books I don't even find the mention of a ski shop in that territory—other than water skis. So there languishes a population, bigger than some states, that should be educated — as well as contacted—and there lies our future potentials.

There is not much to be done about it—unless it is done systematically and area wise. Any ideas? And whilst your dining room and your sleeping quarters can start dreading the family one day invasion—you "their parents" had better start looking to your children's future. Says I.

And now for the social status of this hill.

As the skiing season of 1962 fanfares its closing swan song—(e'en though snow conditions would permit a month more of skiing)—operators and resident begins to "champ at the bit." The flowers are blooming in the valley—the grass is greener on the other side of the fence. The "native" looks out of his window—which he may now peer out of, and wrinkles his nose at the snow banks on either side of the highway. Snow banks that were "bubble bath" a month ago are now gray, forbidding heights of pitted and oozy snow. But the "native" must play ball to the bitter end, the show must go on. And is he frustrated? Yep. So ways and means of relieving frustration must be sought to make the situation bearable.

We are reminded of Maggie Avila's surprise party given for Milt' — (her spouse). Maggie, cleaning and polishing her sterling—in her first burst of spring housekeeping was reminded, in the process, that she had received a silver chafing dish for Christmas. With tongue in cheek she counted her sparkling service and Milt's birthday came to mind with her sparkling setting of 12. So this prime hostess really "put it on"—Milt was properly and genuinely surprised, the 12 guests were properly awed at the sparkle and the party was a success. The guest role included the Forsters, the Zolls, the Goulds (jr.—that is) the Carders, Max Williamson, Ruth Knight and of course the charming host and hostess.

And we hear that another group in this community are toying with the idea of an en masse raid on Las Vegas—just to "get away from it all." This we will report further—and later.

The Thompsons—Jessie and Roy—peer toward the south and wonder how long it will be before they can start their annual exodus to the Cedars.

We tramped through six feet of very wet and unsparkling bubble bath to check on our cabin at Kingvale. And we long to wash its windows and turn off the smelly oil stove so that it can get a peek at spring.

And the robins that hang around our hotel kitchen door for a crust of bread—or something—sing that spring is here and are undaunted by any feeling of dread that winter just might not be over.

And—to catch a final glimpse of winter—after vacationing in the Hawaiian Islands — who pops in but Bud and Betty Horak and their two youngsters—Tahoe bound for this Easter vacation. And we had a grand old rally.

And our Dale Mason celebrates a birthday.

And the trailers and huge chewing machinery of the Guy F. Atkinson Company work yard—are slowly rearing their heads like prehistoric monsters, as they contemplate the melting snows and know that in a short time they can being their Sierra cannibal rites of chewing and digesting and blowing the rocks and earth all over us again (especially when we have a cake in the oven).

And we cannot close without mentioning that the first day of Easter vacation for the kids was highlighted by the Dick Buek Memorial Race at the Ski Ranch. And our two—Patty and Debby—whom we saluted in our column under such headings as "Patty's Promise" and Debbie's Debut—did right well, as predicted. Patty Kelly (it says here) Girls II—1st, racing for Sugar Bowl—time, 51.1. And Debby Zorich — Girls IV, 2nd place, 31.7. Aud our boy Bob Forster, third in Boys I.

And the Oakland Ski Club race held Sunday at the Sugar Bowl brought to mind another Soda Springs champion — Billy Strickland who we haven't "columnized" this season—but shall in our next article, just to keep our finger on the pulse and say "I told you so." Billy came in first in this youngster race with a time of 29.9.

And if you think racing time is

WHAT'S DOING

L. R. deGallery, your Telephone Manager in Tahoe City

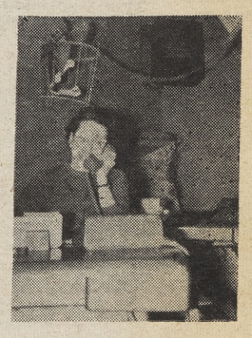

America's first space-age world's fair opens this month in Seattle, Washington. Its theme is Century 21, an exciting look at the year 2000 against a background of our present space accomplishments.

Tying in with this theme at the fair is the Bell Telephone System's "Space Communications Spectacular." It shows many Bell System space projects, including the proposed satellite communications system. It also features up-to-the-minute developments in home and business telephones.

If you plan to visit Seattle's Century 21 Exposition, we hope you'll stop in at the Bell System's exhibit building for a very interesting look at what's new for you in telephone service.

"Money at work means men at work" is the slogan of Invest-in-America Week, April 29 to May 5. Now investing in America may may seem like a big order. But actually it's a matter of looking at it the way the Invest-in-America Council does. They say: "Thanks to the money you put into savings accounts, insurance policies, a home, bonds and stocks, your savings are working to expand industry, make new jobs, and help you enjoy the better things of life."

Bob and Mae Critchley and daughters, Chery, Karen and Kathy, of Tahoe Vista, spent several days in Oregon last week where they visited their aunt, May Brown. Aunt May, as she is known to many residents of the area, lives in Rogue Valley Manor where she has made many friends and is busy and happy.

The Critchleys also visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lekang at Ashland, Oregon. The Lekangs have just sold their trailer park there and will be returning to Kings Beach soon to open their resort.

Also saw Carol and Gene Howard and Frances at Grants Pass, Oregon, and had a nice visit with them.

Virginia and Duff Cassela of Kings Beach have returned home after several weeks visiting in the south and to Belmont.

Billy Beeman has returned from Los Angeles and is at home with Mother, Marg Walker at Tahoe Vista. Now completely recovered from his bout with pneumonia.

Louise Walter of Brockway and Pearl Draney of Incline Beach attended the spring meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at Rio Linda Friday. Installation of the Sacramento-Nevada district officers held with Dr. Kenneth Adams, district superintendent, installing officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Throop are back home in Kings Beach. Mel attended real estate school while away and Carmel attended art school in Sacramento. Mel returns to work for the M. H. Dodd, Co. where he has been associated for the past five years.

Kay Wing of Kings Beach, teacher in the Kings Beach Elementary School, is spending Easter vacation at Flagstaff, Arizona. While there she will visit Grand Canyon and points of interest. Main interest will be the Navajo Indians whom she will visit and study.

Carl and Mary Dyer of Brockway have returned home after spending the past three months in the bay area. Missed all the snow.

What an exciting day Tuesday proved to be. A casual lunch on the Hill where photographer, John Corbett, and newsman, Jim Hecht, were encountered with John Pritchard, vice president and general manager of Sequoia Aviation, Inc. of Belmont, and Jack Loney, of San Carlos in charge of operations and pilot of their helicopter. The latter two were taking a business trip to Reno and invited your correspondent and Beverly Newell of Kings Beach along for the ride.

To the Reno airport in 15 minutes via Mt. Rose and back by Truckee over Tahoe Vista and Kings Beach, 85 miles per hour and it seemed as though it was hardly moving. The lake and surrounding country was beautiful and a helicopter ride is highly recommended for sight seeing.

A blanket collection is being made by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Kings Beach Community Methodist Church. These blankets are needed to replace the exhausted supply given by the World Service Organization which the church supports in their aid to victims of Texas hurricane and other victims of floods, etc. For your contribution call W.S.C.S. president, Pearl Draney, at LI 7-2407, or any member of the group before June 1. Donations can also be made by calling the church.

Pearl Kientz, Virginia Flagg and Ann Dolce of Kings Beach attended the fashion show given by the Emblem Club and held in the Elks building in Reno Wednesday.

DONNER DOINGS

By VIRGINIA O'BEAR

Things are buzzing around Donner Lake. Everyone is smiling since we have been having such beautiful weather and everyone is out working in their yards. Now that the snow is melting you can see flowers popping up out of the ground. They look a little stunted but we have flowers. Besides, the construction job started up on the hill Monday and the workers are moving back for the summer. Fran Carlisle opened her restaurant last week and Tom and Jerie are now ready with their place. Just about everyone is out cleaning and painting. The ice is well off the lake and some beautiful fish were caught from the shore. Quite a few were taken from "boaters" so everything again looks rosy at Donner Lake.

We have some new neighbors living in the Art Johnson home. They are the Chuck Merica's from Floriston. There are five boys, one is Bob who graduated from high school in 1960 with top honors in the sports field. The other boys are Ross, Pat, Joe and Wes, so our son Mike has some playmates now.

We heard from Arline Johnson this week and she and Bert have a ranch and summer camp now for boys and girls in Healdsburg. It sounds just terrific for young people with all kinds of advantages that most camps do not offer. They have a rounded out program consisting of horseback riding with basic riding instruction, care and feeding of horses, swimming, ranching, livestock training on how to raise and show animals, arts and crafts, Indian lore, barbecues, hikes and a full fledged ghost town. Arline says they have "rib stickin' grub" served outdoors with no limit on seconds. They offer a natural amphitheater where would-be actors and entertainers can ham it up in the evenings by the campfire. Oh me, to be young again . . . such as 8 to 15 . . . I'd take off for the Thunderbird Ranch and summer camp.

Guess what? The O'Bears are grandparents again. Our daughter and son in law, Jim and Andrea Holmes had a little boy Saturday, April 14 in Santa Rosa. He weighed in at 8 pounds, 10 ounces and they named him Scott Ross. Now two year old Stephanie has a little brother to play with. Our other grandson, David Whitley, visited us last Friday for a little while as he is living with his mother in Reno again. He is only 16 months old now so doesn't realize that the reason he doesn't see his daddy is because he is stationed at Fort Ord and is in the army. Dave will be home soon for two weeks when he finishes basic training.

Charlie Clark and daughter Carol are spending Easter week at Donner Lake. You will all remember Charlie from Santa Rosa as he comes up every year and helps at regatta time. He sold beer last year for the firemen and said he would enjoy helping out again this year in any way he can. Well, if there is a regatta and it kind of looks like there will be, thanks to the Truckee Donner Chamber of Commerce, we will most certainly call on Charlie.

The Auxiliary of the Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Department will meet this Thursday evening, April 19 at the Alpine Riverside in Truckee. A delicious steak dinner will be served starting at 7:30. Hostesses are Jo Ann Affeldt, Claudia St. Claire and Maybelle Vahey. The officers board meeting was held Monday evening at the home of Ozella Slate and it was announced that the actresses for the Flaming Follies skit by the auxiliary will be Jerie Bonano, Jean Walker and Nancy Brodie. The Fire-ettes have their tickets out now for the show scheduled for April 27 and 28 with 13 service clubs participating. It will be held at the old elementary school and should be a flaming success as well as a lot of fun with all the local talent. I can't wait until Milla Johnson gets here to find out what our three performers have to do, she says it's a riot. See you Thursday night at the Riverside.

DIVOT-DIGGERS

By BETTY KIELHOFER

IT WAS UNBELIEVABLE — Truckee showed up in Grass Valley with almost 50 players for the golf match between the two clubs Sunday. This is the largest turnout we have ever had for this match and it really shows how many people have taken up the game in the last couple of years. Everyone was remarking about the beautiful weather. For many of us, it was the first day out in the sunshine after the long winter and it was fun to see all the pink noses and rosy cheeks.

The Grass Valley people were absolutely wonderful to us. We were greeted with coffee and pastries in the morning and provided with a most delicious chicken dinner after the day was over. All this was free, including the greens fees. We'll have to really work at it to have something just as nice for them when they have their return here. It was truly hospitality at its best.

We were very happy to have some of the Tahoe-Squaw Valley group with us—the Carnells, Martins and Waddells. That carefree Buelah was my partner and after not playing all winter, she practically carried me all the way. We had lots of laughs as did most everyone I saw.

Elsie Martin and Mary Lou Waddell came in with low gross for both clubs for the ladies while Mike Popovich and Ange Besio were low for the men. Orf DeLuca and Ed Ryan were second low gross and the team of Howard Martin-Frank Gaiennie took third.

Even though the total points (26-12) were in Grass Valley's favor, Truckee came home with many top prizes. There were all sorts of other prizes such as the closest drive to a white line on the 9th fairway, closest to a hole-in-one on number 4 green, sweepstakes, etc. but the names and winners are too numerous to mention.

Two I'd like to mention are Bob Leamon for winning the most golf balls (10, I think) and Eve Popovich because it was her very first trip to a tournament and she came up with two spanking new balls in the sweepstakes. So you see, it isn't just the pros who win.

Probably the most unusual event of the day was Patti Fink teeing off number nine with a whizzer which unfortunately headed for and hit a player coming up an adjoining fairway. With some 90 players or so hustling about on a small course, it was quite unusual that the target turned out to be her very own husband, Charlie. (She said she really didn't plan it that way).

Well, so much for a wonderful weekend. REMEMBER, if you haven't yet joined the country club, you're missing a lot and will be missing much more. Just give Dorothy Leamon, our membership chairman, a ring and she'll be happy to fix you up with a card. Its' only $5 per year per person for a whole summer of fun.

Soda Springs Giant Slalom on April 18.

The "Easter Parade Traditional Beer Race" on the Soda Springs Ski Hill—Easter Sunday.

And of course we will report further on our own Easter breakfast—also traditional for the Donner Summit kids.

And just as we are about to pop this in the mail box—in comes Larry and Marge Rowton with family of four. All hale and hearty and on their way to Quincy to see Ralph and Goldie.

It is fitting that Easter comes at the beginning of springtime—for resurrection means a rising from new season. May we shed the old conditions, as spring means a garments of winter darkness and rise anew in the strength of spring. So a very, happy and joyful arising to each and all of you, and may you face this new period, which is designated by the word Easter, with confidence and joy.

Faithfully Fran

New Donner Pass Name Suggested

James Sherritt — a long-time resident of this region—has come up with what might be a sensible solution to the bickering controversy which has developed over the naming of the new freeway across Donner Summit.

Sherritt suggests that the new route simply be called "Donner Freeway." This, he contends, would not disturb the present Donner Pass, but would eliminate such names as "Stevens Pass" and other designations which have been proposed.

The thought has been expressed to division of highway officials, Sherritt said, and meets with their approval. However, he was advised that any name agreed upon by the people would be suitable to the state.

Sherritt said that while visiting in the east he was often called upon to tell where he was from and seldom was he questioned when he answered near Donner Pass. However, he added, it will certainly be a mystery to people removed from here to know anything about Stevens Pass.

FRANK TRACY STEPS OUT OF PRESIDENCY

RENO — After more than 20 years of guiding Sierra Pacific Power Co. through the biggest expanison period of its history, Frank A. Tracy announced that he is stepping out of active management of the firm.

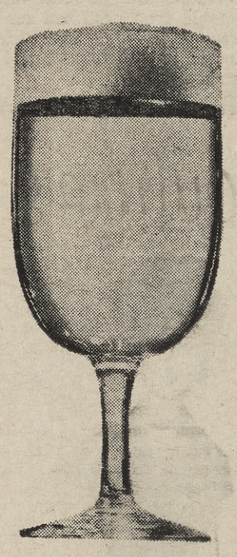

For more than a year Tracy has been chairman of the board of directors of the power company, a position created by the board when Fred L. Fletcher was elected president. Prior to becoming board chairman, Tracy had been president from 1942 to 1961. He came to Reno as manager of Sierra Pacific in 1940.

Although Tracy now leaves the active management of the firm to Fletcher, he has accepted an advisory position as honorary chairman of the board at the request of the directors.

In the honorary post he will have an office in the Sierra Pacific headquarters at 220 South Virginia St., Reno.

"Having Frank Tracy close at hand so that we can continue to benefit from his knowledge and experience will be a great asset to everyone concerned with the company, including its customers and stockholders," Fletcher said.

During the time Tracy was president the Sierra Pacific plant investment — the value of all the company's equipment — grew almost five times the amount recorded when he took over in 1942.

SKI INSTRUCTORS TO HAVE RUGGED TESTS

Some 50 ski instructors are expected to be certified after rugged tests offered at the Far West Ski Instructors' Association convention April 22nd through 28th at Mammoth Mountain.

Taking part in the examinations, both oral and physical, will be approximately 100 aspirants from California, Nevada and Arizona.

The tests have been held annually since 1947, at the behest of the forest service, on whose lands most areas operate. The service requires resorts to employ certified instructors or those undergoing tests.

The standards are stiff. Even to be able to take part, a candidate must have 50 hours in a certified school. To go for full certification, 300 hours are required.

GOOD POST-SEASON SKIING IS ASSURED

Although the competitive ski season in this region will end during the coming weekend, the recreational skier is assured of good sport well into May and a number of operators are scheduling post season races to take advantage of good snow conditions expected until after Memorial Day.

Easter Sunday events are planned at Soda Springs, Donner Ski Ranch, Sugar Bowl, Alpine Meadows, Squaw Valley and other nearby resorts.

Vacation

NEVADA COUNTY TO SHARE LICENSE FEES

SACRAMENTO—(CNS) — State Controller Alan Cranston has announced the distribution of $85,735,318 in motor vehicle license fees to the state's cities and counties, including $57,033 to Nevada County.

The total fees up nearly 4 per cent from a year ago, were distributed equally between cities and counties.

This month's apportionment was the second of three installments. The first, amounting to $7,886,243, was paid in December. The final payment in June is expected to be nearly $30 million for a total distribution of about $114 million, up from $109 million last year.

HAROLD CARLES IS WED TO HELEN CRAFT

By Virginia O'Bear

Friends in the Truckee Donner area were surprised but happy to learn of the wedding last Saturday, April 14 of Harold Carles and Helen Craft. The ceremony took place in the Sunset Wedding Chapel in Reno and the newlyweds will make their permanent home at Donner Lake.

The bride was a lab technician from San Jose living in that area since last October. She is from Texas and has a charming accent. The pair plan a honeymoon which will last several months and will visit relatives in the east as well as deep in the heart of Texas.

WOULD BAN GAMES AT PROPOSED PARK

There will be no gambling permitted on the proposed California-Nevada state park. When that venture is finally approved, if the Nevada Compact Drafting Committee has its way.

The committee was formed to negotiate with a similar group from California to acquire 23,500 acres of Lake Tahoe shoreline property in Nevada from George Whittell. The cost of the land would be $25 million.

DINING ROOM OPENS WITH MANY GUESTS

More than 100 guests signed the register at the grand opening of the Maple Dining Room at the Alpine Riverside Hotel Thursday between 6 and 12 p. m. when Kenneth and Margaret Johnson were hosts.

Guests were present from all parts of the district and were pleased with the hospitality extended and with the hors d'ouvres and main repast prepared by Chef Pierre Saboe.

A highlight of the evening was the arrival of floral arrangements from Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Johnson and his brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson of Wotoga, Illinois and his sister, Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Galva, Illinois.

CONSTRUCTION

However, no work which will interfere with traffic will be performed on weekends or holidays.

For a total of about three miles through commercial areas, mostly in the Kings Beach vicinity, the highway is being widened to 64 feet to provide four lanes. The remainder of the project will be two lanes, widened to 32 feet, with a section 40 feet wide at the east end of the job.

Contractor for the project is Madonna Construction Co. of San Luis Obispo. Bernard Campbell of Yuba City is resident engineer for the division of highways and will maintain an office at the Tahoe City maintenance station on State Sign Route 89, about one-half mile west of the Wye.

The section of SSR 28 from Tahoe iCty to Dollar Grade was resurfaced on its existing width under a separate contract last summer.

KINGS BEACH—A discussion on what the community can expect from highway construction this summer will be the feature of a meeting called by the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce at the Kings Beach school tonight at 8 p. m. The meeting was called at the request of State Senator Ron Cameron and will be attended by Assemblyman Paul Lunardi, contractors and division of highway representatives.
